

Billings Family YMCA Summer Camp Parent Handbook Philosophy and Goals June 2024 (Revised Jan 2024)

Welcome!

YMCA Summer Camp is a quality school-age childcare program designed to meet the needs of children and working parents. We provide a safe, creative environment based on the four core values of honesty, respect, responsibility, and caring that are essential for positive character development.

Program Philosophy

YMCA Summer Camp will provide a safe, nurturing atmosphere in which children exercise individual responsibility, social interaction, and activities that promote healthy self-image and enhance the quality of a child's life. The Summer Camp program will emphasize the development of social, emotional, physical, and intellectual skills within a recreational and educational setting. Summer Camp is committed to promoting and supporting all aspects of a child's growth in an atmosphere of respect. Children are encouraged to trust, learn to function as a member of a group, and have their individual characteristics recognized and appreciated by the group. Children are encouraged to make individual choices and take responsibility for their choices.

YMCA Summer Camp enrolls participants without discrimination of race, religion, creed, color, or national origin. Families needing financial assistance may fill out a scholarship application at the Member Services Desk.

- Fever of 100 degrees or greater- child must be without fever for 24 hours before they can return to care. – without fever reducing medication
- Vomiting and diarrhea-children must be without vomiting and diarrhea for 24 hours before they can return. Vomiting includes two or more episodes in the previous 24-hour period. Diarrhea is defined as an increased number of stools, increased water in the stool, and/or decreased form to the stool that cannot be contained by a diaper or clothing.
- Bacterial infections-children with bacterial infections must have antibiotic treatment for 24 hours before returning to childcare for:
 - Strep throat
 - Scarlet fever
 - Conjunctivitis (pink eye)
 - Impetigo
 - Skin infections – such as draining burns/wounds.

Generalized rashes, including those covering multiple parts of the body. These rashes must be evaluated by a health provider to determine the cause before they can return to childcare. Healthcare providers should provide a written statement, which authorizes the child's return for the childcare centers file in each instance.

- Chickenpox-children with chickenpox cannot attend childcare until the sores dry up (usually 5-7 days). Children cannot be exposed to chickenpox, even with the parent's permission.
- Symptoms of severe illness, whether they would otherwise be excluded. Examples:
 - Uncontrolled coughing, breathing difficulties or wheezing, stiff neck, irritability, poor food or fluid intake, or a seizure. Such children must be evaluated by a healthcare provider before they may return to childcare.
- A child need not be excluded for a nasal discharge unless the discharge is green and accompanied by a fever. Such symptoms may indicate an infection. Children with such discharge must be evaluated by a physician and authorized to return.

If a child develops symptoms of illness after the parent or guardian has left, the childcare center must do the following:

- Isolate child immediately
- Contact and inform parent/guardian, as soon as possible and request him or her to pick up the child.
- Report each case of suspected communicable diseases the same day by telephone to the local health department (i.e., salmonella, shigella, giardia, campylobacter, etc.)
- Head Lice: If your child has or had head lice, all nits and eggs must be completely gone before a child can return to camp. Sometimes multiple treatments and combing through is required to ensure all nits and eggs are gone.

Severe Medical Emergency

- If immediate care of a physician or paramedic is required, staff will:
- Call 911 immediately. Parents will be contacted immediately after 911 has been called.
- If a parent cannot be reached, staff will attempt to contact an authorized person located on the Emergency Contact Form.
- If a child needs to be transported to a medical facility, the YMCA staff reserves the right, with the assistance of paramedics, to determine if the child will be transported by an emergency vehicle.
- Families will be responsible for any expenses incurred due to a child's injury.

Because accidents can happen to all children, it is important that the YMCA has current phone numbers where parent/guardians can be reached during the day, as well as the numbers for the authorized persons listed on the Emergency Contact Form. Authorized and emergency pickup contacts info needs to be updated every summer.

Insurance Liability

Medical coverage for children will be the responsibility of the parents.

Child Abuse Prevention Information for Parents

Child Abuse and Neglect

Under Montana State Law, all professional staff that work in childcare are required to report all suspected physical abuse, emotional abuse, sexual abuse, or neglect of children to Child Protective Services.

- Who should talk to children about Safety?

A parent is the best person to teach a youth about personal safety. However, the staff at the YMCA will also be communicating similar messages.

- When should I speak with my child about safety?
While age and maturity matter and will impact the information you provide, as well as the way it is provided, much of the content will be repeated for years to come. Start teaching very young children the correct names for their body parts.
- What else can I do to help keep my child safe?

Listen to your child.

- Know your child's daily activities and habits.
- Listen to what they like and what they don't like.
- Encourage open communication. Let your child know they can talk to you about any situation.
- Reassure your child that their safety is your number one concern.

Teach your child.

- Set boundaries about places they may go, people they may see, and things they may do.
- Reinforce the importance of the buddy system.
- Tell your child to trust their instincts – it's ok to say no.

What personal safety skills should my child have?

- Knows his or her full name, address, telephone number and parent's names.
- Always checks first with parents or person in charge before going anywhere or getting into a car even with someone he or she knows.
- Always checks first with parents or trusted adult before accepting anything from anyone, even from someone known to them.
- Always take a friend when going places, or playing outside without parents.
- Says NO if someone tries to inappropriately touch them.
- Leaves the area if someone behaves in a manner that makes him or her feel scared, uncomfortable or confused.

Parent Role in the Partnership to Prevent Child Abuse

- Familiarize yourself with the YMCA's policies.
- Learn the basics of child physical and sexual abuse.
- Talk to your child about sexual abuse.
- Participate in your child's programs.

- Do not hesitate to contact the YMCA with any concerns.

Basics of YMCA Child Abuse Prevention Policy

Research shows that only 11% of incidents of sexual abuse are committed by a stranger. The remaining 89% are committed by a family member or by someone known to the child or the family. Some molesters use the organizations where they work to volunteer and gain access to child.

When and where can child abuse happen?

Away from the YMCA: Molesters do whatever they can to spend time with students away from the YMCA ex: field trips, sporting events, phone calls, and online chats

During unstructured times: Unstructured times such as before school childcare, sports programs, or directly after lunch in a full day program are potentially dangerous because children may be unaccounted for while others are distracted by the events. Staff may be busy tending to one child while another wanders off.

In isolated or infrequently used locations: Child molesters love privacy. Areas such as empty rooms, stairwells, storage closets, etc. Provide privacy and allow the child molester to be alone with the child.

- When age groups are mixed: Children may be at risk of abuse by another child that is older, stronger, or larger.
- When programs are short staffed: When programs run short staffed, supervision may become lax. Or an employee or volunteer may be alone with a lone child or avoid scrutiny by others.
- In activities involving water: Activities that involve partial or full nudity abuse increases.

Steps for Safety:

- WATCH for interactions or behaviors that are not normal for your YMCA.
- INTERRUPT an employee, volunteer or member that is spending too much time with a child. Ex: favoritism, sitting on lap.
- REPORT any concerns that you have about suspicious or inappropriate behavior immediately to your department head, Volunteer Coordinator or to the Cause Driven Leader on Duty.
- CHECK BACK after you report a suspicious incident be prepared to share specifics and check back to see if the problem has or was corrected.

Protecting Yourself:

- Keep your boundaries with kids clear. As the adult you must set limits in your relationships with children. They have less judgment and maturity. They are not your friends or your equals.
- Your responsibility is to supervise and care for them.
- Avoid situations where you are alone with a child. In most programs you will NEVER be required to be alone with a lone child. In some programs, however, or under unusual circumstances, you may need to be alone with a child.

Managing the Risk When One Staff is Alone with one Youth

In those situations where one-on-one interactions are approved, staff should observe the following additional guidelines to manage the risk of abuse or false allegations of abuse:

- When meeting one-on-one with a youth, always do so in a public place where you are in full view of others.
- Avoid physical affection that can be misinterpreted. Limit affection to pats on the shoulder, high-fives, and handshakes.
- If meeting in a room or office, leave the door open or move to an area that can be easily observed by others passing by.
- Inform other staff and volunteers that you are alone with a youth and ask them to randomly drop in.
- Document and immediately report any unusual incidents, including disclosures of abuse or maltreatment, behavior problems and how they were handled, injuries, or any interactions that might be misinterpreted.

3. The policies of the YMCA state that there is no outside contact from work such as babysitting, tutoring, social media, etc. If you know a child prior to starting at the YMCA, you must disclose this information prior to starting.

Appropriate and Inappropriate Physical Contact

Our organization's physical contact policy promotes a positive, nurturing environment while protecting youth, staff, and volunteers. Our organization encourages appropriate physical contact with youth and prohibits inappropriate displays of physical contact. Any inappropriate physical contact by staff or volunteers towards youth in the organization's programs will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or volunteering.

Bathrooms/Locker rooms.

Molesters need privacy. Kids are more likely to act out sexually in bathrooms. Guidelines for managing bathrooms should be ALWAYS followed.

- Take children in small groups. Even if only one child needs to go to the bathroom never go alone, always take at least 2 other children with.
- Examine areas: check the bathroom before allowing the child to go in. This includes each stall to ensure that someone is not hiding.
- Only one child can be in the bathroom at a time. If a restroom has more than one stall, more than one child can go in at a time if you stand in the doorway to ensure that the children are not going into each other's stalls. Also remember that if you only have three children with you and two go into a stall you have now left yourself one on one with a child.
- Stand nearby: after you have checked the bathroom and it is all clear, you must stand outside the door and do not allow anyone else to go in the restroom until the child is finished and out.

Moving Groups of Children

When moving large groups of children from one destination to the next, a head count must be done before moving. There is to always be a staff/volunteer leading the line and one at the end of the line (sandwich effect). Do not allow large gaps in the line, if there does become a gap, stop, head count, and wait until you can see the staff at the end of the line again. When getting to the destination make sure that a head count is done again to ensure that all children have made it.

What to discuss with your child about Sexual Abuse

- Parents should provide their child with an age-appropriate definition of abuse.
- Parents should tell their child that if someone tries to touch them or abuse them in any way, they should get away from that person as soon as possible.
- Parents should encourage their child to tell them immediately if they have a problem or someone makes them feel uncomfortable.
- Parents should assure their child that they will not get in trouble if they talk about abuse.

Warning Signs that your child feels uncomfortable

- Increased seeking of affection from adults.

- Reluctance to spend time with a previously favored adult.
- Reluctance to attend activities that were previously enjoyed.
- An uncharacteristic decrease in bathing and grooming.
- Preoccupation with sexual matters.
- Increased aggressiveness.
- Nightmares and sleep disturbances.

How to respond if your child discloses abuse

- Listen.
- Be sensitive to vague disclosures.
- Avoid expressing shock or outrage.
- Don't threaten or condemn the alleged perpetrator.
- Let your child know you believe him or her.
- Tell your child he or she was right to disclose.
- Assure the abuse was not your child's fault.
- Reassure them that they will be safe.
- Avoid questions that could make your child feel responsible.
- Get as many details as your child is comfortable disclosing.
- Write down exactly what your child discloses and contact authorities.

Please contact The Youth Development Director or any member of senior management at the YMCA with any concerns of this nature.

The YMCA strives to maintain a positive environment for all children in programs. All program participants have the right to feel welcome, safe, and nurtured. - Uphold the YMCA core values of RESPECT, RESPONSIBILITY, HONESTY and CARING.

NO TOLERANCE POLICY

We ask for parent and guardian support in maintaining a fun, safe place for both children and Y staff to learn, grow and thrive. Ideally, we want to work with children and families to prevent these behaviors from occurring. Please talk to your child about the importance of not exhibiting the behaviors listed but not limited to the following below:

Failure to follow this code of conduct will result in disciplinary action which may include being sent home early, and/or suspension or removal from the program. These actions will be documented with a behavioral report and signed by parents/guardians. The overall integrity and quality of Y programs is of utmost importance, and we will take the steps necessary to ensure both.

Due to the wide variety of behaviors that children display, the YMCA reserves the right to make the decision to suspend or expel a child based on the physical or emotional safety of the child, other children in the program and the staff.

PARENT/GUARDIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

To ensure that Y Programs provide a positive and healthy atmosphere, this Code of Conduct sets forth conditions that parents/guardians are expected to follow and promote. If parents/guardians cannot or will not uphold these conditions, those parents could face suspension from programs.

HEPA – Healthy Eating Physical Activity

The Billings Family YMCA implements a series of healthy eating and physical activity standards in our summer camp program as part of the Y's national commitment to combat childhood obesity and ensure that all those who participate in YMCA programs live a healthier, balanced life. Summer Camp ensures that every child will engage in at least 30-60 minutes of physical activity per day, including a mix of moderate and vigorous physical activities that promote bone and muscle strengthening. Play will take place outdoors whenever possible. The YMCA Summer Camp program also does not allow access to television. We limit digital devices time to less than one hour per day. Digital device use is limited to homework or programs that actively engage children in activity.

Snacks (Food service practices)

The Billings Family YMCA facility participates in the SFSP is a federally funded, state-administered program. The SFSP reimburses providers who serve free healthy meals to children and teens in low-income areas during the summer months when school is not in session. The U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Summer Food Service Program (SFSP), also known as the Summer Meals Program, provides kids and teens in low-income areas free meals when school is out. There are several ways that local organizations can be a part of the Summer Meals Program.
